A. Louis Mone

TO THE GRADUATES,

Early this year, I spoke to you about Jessie Owens who won four Gold Medals in the 1936 Olympics. Jessie Owens was a success! It didn't happen by chance. He knew what he wanted, and he was determined to get it. He believed he could and he went after it. Four gold medals!

Jessie Owens said, once, in a talk to young people, that there were four rungs on the ladder of success. The first rung was setting a goal. Picture in your mind what you want to be or do. See yourself doing it.

The second rung is determination. Don't forget your picture. Keep it in your mind every day.

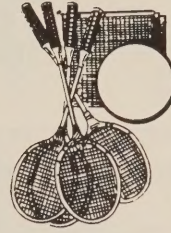

The third rung is attitude. Believe in yourself. Believe you can be the picture you have of yourself.

The fourth rung is self discipline. Do what it takes without being told. Study. Practice. Work. Most importantly, don't give up.

CONGRATULATIONS and GOOD LUCK in High School.

"Blood, Sweat, and Tears"!

Yearbook Staff

The yearbook staff worked harmoniously during the months of January through April to capture the year 1987- 1988 as a door closed for a new beginning.

The celebrated months of February and March had our staff hustling for our Valentine's Day Dance and our St. Patrick's Day Dance featuring a new rap group "Fresh Finesse". Much gratitude goes to Scott Bea for soliciting local sponsors for door prizes and the St. Patrick's Day Dance entertainment.

Members of the staff that served various roles were; Shawn Bryant, Dana Andrews, Chris Andrews, Chucky Andrews, Danielle Graves, and Jobena McGraw.

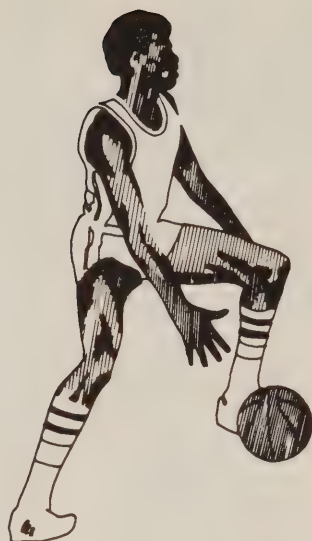

Yearbook editor, Gerard Edwards, faithfully and diligently monitored the completion during our daily 3-5 p.m. escapades. His patience and endurance of the task developed a well organized memorabilia.

Advisors, Susan Fray and Geraldine Smith wish the graduating class many years of success by believing in yourselves.

Best Wishes and Good Luck

Boys' Basketball

All Star Falcons

The Maxson Falcons were successfully coached to a winning season by Mr. Foster. They proved that teamwork, sportsmanship, and spirit make an unbeatable combination.

Standing: Chris Andrews, Brian Mauldin, Dana Andrews, Shawn Bryant, Chucky Andrews,

Seated: Clarence Wilson, Sharrab Harrison, Damon Nicholas, Damani Goodson

Kneeling: Howard Wilson, Kenny Johnson, Dwayne Shaw

The Falcons had an impressive win/loss record of 10/4 under the leadership of the "Triple Tower" (Dana, Shawn, Brian) and the "Double Power"(Chucky and Chris).

"Put it in, Dwayne!"

Girl's

Basketball

Teamwork paid off under the direction of Coach Sala, as the girls' team ends with a victorious season.

Standing: Shonda Morris, Charlotte Greene, Sheia Mickens, Lois-Tresia Smith, Andrea Robinson, Johnnette Young

Seated: Demieka Tweedy, Nicole Frazier, Juakita Green

Kneeling: co-captains, Trisha Salmon, Kiesha Prince.

Moments to Remember

The halls of Maxson came alive in December during the annual holiday door decorating contest. Mrs. Middleton's home-room received "top billing"!

During this festive season our student senate and staff remembered the less fortunate in the community. Many decorative food baskets were abundantly filled and distributed to local families!

"Tis the spirit of the SEASON!"

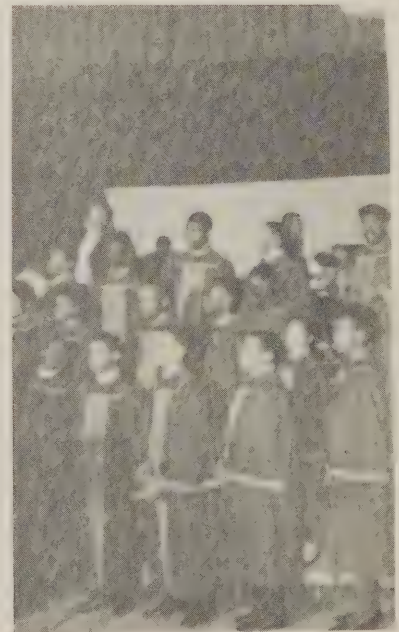

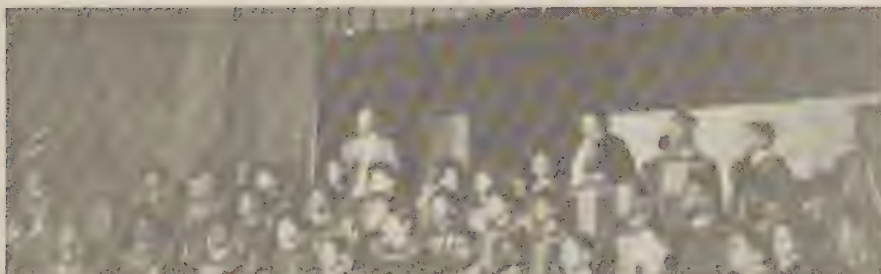

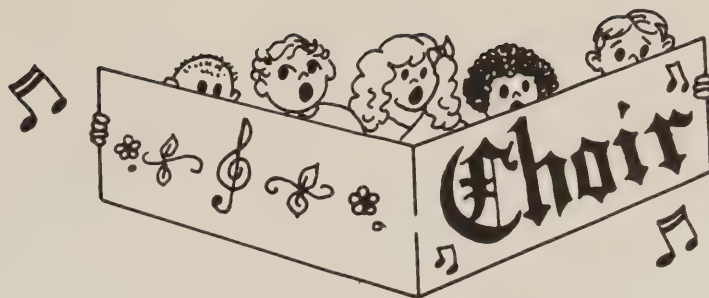

The all-city choir is a combination of Maxson and Hubbard Middle Schools and, PHS choir members. Maxson's musical contribution of expertise is evident provided by Wendell Perkins and Stephanie Minatee.
